VoxBlu carefully considers each selection before adding it to their song list. Many bands claim to play music from many different genres but VoxBlu takes this concept to a new level. They have become known in the industry for their ease in bridging the gaps between musical genres whilst maintaining the integrity of the sound. From Top 40 to Motown to Latin, they can truly do it all! This list does not include many of the selections that would be played during dinner or for specialty dances, please get further information from the band leader.
